

K-12 books to inspire discussion, curiosity, and wonder about the natural world with young children

Name	Author	Brief Description
The Urban Owls How Falco and Friends Make the City Their Own	Christian Cooper	Wonderful illustrations of NYC and the Owls who reside there. Ideal for urban children anywhere
Where the Deer Slip Through	Katey Howes	Rhyming prose describing a meadow and its inhabitants For K-1
The Spider Lady Nan Songer Anachnid WWII Army	Henny Parker Klostermann	A fascinating tale about a scientist who studies spiders and helps during WWII. For 4-8
Hilwa's Gifts	Safa Suleiman	This book brings us to Palestine and a family harvesting olives. "A heartwarming multigenerational story that celebrates an ancient tradition and the many gifts it brings." For 2-4